Parent Tip:
Look in a mirror with your child and encourage him to point out all of his body parts that come in pairs. What else can you find that comes in pairs?

Elmo needs to sort his herd of kitty-cows into pairs. Draw lines matching each kitty-cow to another kitty-cow that looks exactly the same. Now, count the kitty-cows by two. How many are there all together? Here's a hint: A pair means 2.